

A "COY" Die?

Dave Hill

No, not a shy die, but is H0580.01 (HB/&Coy) the only die to use this abbreviation for 'company'? This abbreviation is more usually used for a company in the military rather than the commercial sense. I have it, surprisingly, with a scarce 'K48' cancel of the London & Holyhead Travelling Post Office. But this is of no help in identifying the user. (ED:- My copies of QV Jubilee 2½d, 10d & 1/- values are all pmk 'LONDON'.)
